ASK

The Apprenticeship Support and Knowledge for Schools and Colleges programme (ASK) is funded by the National Apprenticeship Service, part of the Department for Education. The programme is designed to give schools, colleges and other educational establishments across England free support to develop and transform how students think about apprenticeships. School can also access support from the Young Apprentice Ambassador Network (YAAN) via this site. YAAN are a network of young people who can visit schools to share their own apprenticeship experiences.

National apprenticeships week live broadcasts:

Apprenticeships LIVE was a live streamed event that broadcasts to thousands across the country wanting to find out more about apprenticeships and the developments happening within different companies and sectors.

Several broadcasts were recorded by North East providers during National Apprenticeships week and can be accessed via the link below. More broadcasts on other apprenticeships offered by national employers can be accessed through this link

On Thursday 28th November. The National Apprenticeship Service and South Tyneside Council hosted the broadcast with local employers in Tyne and Wear to find out about the type of apprenticeships that are available in the North East and how an apprenticeship puts you on an excellent footing to develop your career.

Employers including Siemens Gamesa Renewable Energy, Zenith People, Port of Tyne and their apprentices attended to answer questions about their apprenticeship programme.
