

Photography

Intent

HEBBURN
Comprehensive School

WORK HARD | BE KIND | ASPIRE

In an increasingly media- aware and visual landscape, photography provides the alphabet for an international language that informs all aspects of global interaction. The saturation of pictorial imagery in which we are immersed means that learning the nuances of ‘visual language’ is more important than ever before. If it is true that ‘Every picture tells a story’, is it not important to be fluent in the language which the entire world has in common?

10

11

Topics

AQA GCSE
Technical photographic techniques

Basic camera skills

AQA GCSE
Portraiture